

Personal Profile – Karthik Ramakrishnan

Holds a Masters in Energy Management from ESCP, Europe, MBA from west Coast university, USA and B.E. Electrical and Electronics Engineering from Madras University. Has over 24 years marketing and general management experience in running various industries in Solar, Auto component, Chemicals and Information Technology Industry verticals. Has been involved actively in the technical collaboration of Pentafour and Solec International (Sanyo's subsidiary) for setting up manufacturing in solar in 1993. He has been actively involved in over 900 MW of Design and Implementation on off-grid/On –grid power plants. He has been actively involved in training on both the rooftop and MW scale projects for over 10 years . He has got good management experience in the supply chain of Solar Photovoltaics and Feasibility, design & implementation of large solar power plants.