C: Eminent Speakers from International and Indian organisations in the field of Wind Energy

D: Exhibition Stalls exhibiting latest technology equipments from the world over

E: Enthusiastic participants of more than 300 in number

All the above factors have taken the Conference to the really international standards for which we thank all our members of the Association. Our special thank goes to our Chairman Sri K. Kasthoorirangaian, National Council Members Sri Rajsekhar Budhavarapu, Dr. R. Venkatesh and Mr. Sunil Jain who worked tirelessly for months together for taking care of every minute details for success of the Conference .

Our Chairman welcomed the august gathering and utilized this opportunity to present to this high level forum the key issues that may transform the Wind Power Scenario in India. He emphasized that the planet needs the clean and green energy and we are targeting 20 % green energy from wind power by the year 2020, which requires annual addition of 5000 MW. China has added 19000 MW in the year 2010 and it has a target of 230000 MW from RE. India with so much of potential can certainly achieve 20 % wind energy by 2020 which is the target of this Conference.

We have summarized the deliberations of the Conference in each of the 17 sessions and on the basis of deliberations an Action Plan has been prepared for various Departments to act upon. The printed booklet “ Major Findings” has been sent to all the concerned Departments like Ministry of New and Renewable energy, Ministry of Power, Ministry of Environment and Forests, IREDA, C-WET, CERC, State RECs, State Electricity Boards, DISCOMs, etc. for further action.

We thank our Supporters MNRE, C-WET, IREDA, our sponsors Suzlon, Leitner Shriram, Regen Powertech, Gamesa, RRB Energy, Vestas, Kenersys, Enercon, CLP Power, MSPL, GE Energy, AWS Truepower, Indowind, Pioneer Wincon, Siemens, 3Tier, Voith Turbo, AVN Energy, Fiza Group, Acciona Energy, IREDA and ABPS Infra, without their all out support it would not have been possible to organize such an International event.
